3. Defendant Andrew Chadeayne is a lawyer, licensed to practice law in the United States Patent and Trademark Office, and at all relevant times was a member, authorized person and agent of Defendant Chadeayne, LLC. Butler and Patrick J. Butler. Chadeayne, LLC and Mr. Andrew Chadeayne were agents of each other at all relevant times.

4. Defendant Pacific Patent Group, LLC, is an active Washington paralegal and business services corporation, organized and existing pursuant to the laws of the State of Washington, with its principal place of business and registered agent located at 8201 164th Ave. NE, Suite 200, Redmond WA 98052. At all relevant times, Defendant Pacific Patent Group,

LLC acted by and through its employees and authorized agents and persons including, but not limited to, paralegal Holli Templeton Defendant Pacific Patent Group, LLC as a paralegal services corporation, had the duty to use that degree of skill and learning ordinarily used by paralegal service corporations under the same or similar circumstances in the performance of its paralegal services for Plaintiffs Susan L Butler and Patrick J. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

6. This Court has jurisdiction pursuant to Article V, § 14(a) of the Missouri Constitution and MO REV. STAT. § 478.070. and § 506.500.1. This cause of action arises from Defendants' transaction of business in the State of Missouri and the contract for legal services Defendants entered into with Plaintiffs in the State of Missouri.

7. Defendants are subject to this Court's jurisdiction because they transacted business in the State of Missouri, they derived substantial revenue from the State of Missouri, they committed a tort in whole or in part in the State of Missouri, and they entered into a contract for legal services in the State of Missouri, their breach of which forms the basis for Plaintiffs' claims.

8. Defendants communicated by phone and email with Plaintiffs in St. Louis. They collaborated with Plaintiffs on the drafting of the patent application, and they accepted payments from St. Louis for these legal services related to Plaintiffs' patent. Defendants advertised their patenting legal services nationwide on the internet and solicited clients in Missouri, including the Plaintiffs. Because of Defendants' regular and significant contacts with the State of Missouri, Defendants could reasonably foresee being sued in the State of Missouri. Therefore, this Court's exercise of jurisdiction over Defendants comports with the due process clause of the United States Constitution in that Defendants clearly had sufficient minimum contacts with the State of Missouri, such that this Court's exercise of jurisdiction would not offend fundamental notions of fair play and justice.

9. Venue is proper in this Court pursuant to MO REV. STAT. § 508.010, which provides that if all Defendants are nonresidents of Missouri they may be sued in any County in the State of Missouri in that all Defendants are nonresidents of the State of Missouri.

FACTS COMMON TO ALL COUNTS

10. In November 2015, Defendants Chadeayne, LLC, and Andrew Chadeayne (the Chadeayne Defendants) entered into an attorney-client relationship with Plaintiffs when Plaintiffs employed said Defendants to be their lawyers to handle and prosecute U.S. Patent Application 62258322 relating to "multi-flavored and/or multi-colored food spread compositions, methods of making the same, and packages housing the same." Plaintiffs paid the Chadeayne Defendants for their legal and patent filing services from Missouri. During their communications, the Chadeayne Defendants, through Andrew Chadeayne, advised Plaintiffs that he used a patent filing service to electronically file documents with the United States Patent and Trademark Office.

11. During the course of the patent application process, the Chadeayne Defendants worked with Plaintiffs on drafting the final version of Patent Application 62258322. Plaintiffs relied on the Chadeayne Defendants' expertise in drafting and handling the filing of Patent Application 62258322.

12. On November 20, 2015, Defendants Andrew Chadeayne and Holli Templeton filed a Provisional Patent Application 62258322, with an EFS ID of 24147395. Andrew Chadeayne and Holli Templeton are shown as the "Filer(s)" on the Electronic Acknowledgement Receipt received from the United States Patent and Trademark Office.

13. After November 20, 2015, all Defendants failed to file any additional documents in the United States Patent and Trademark Office. More specifically, all Defendants failed to file a Nonprovisional Patent Application relating to Patent Application 62258322. All Defendants knew that a corresponding Nonprovisional Patent Application must be filed during the 12-month pendency period after the filing of provisional Patent Application 62258322, and that if the Nonprovisional Patent was not filed, Plaintiffs' legal rights to the claims in Patent Application 62258322 would be lost forever.

COUNT I
LEGAL MALPRACTICE / CONSCIOUS DISREGARD

14. Defendants Chadeayne, LLC, and Andrew Chadeayne failed to exercise that degree of skill and learning ordinarily used under the same or similar circumstances by members of the legal profession, in that Chadeayne, LLC, and Andrew Chadeayne:

- (a) Failed to file a Nonprovisional Patent Application relating to Provisional Patent Application 62258322 before the 12-month pendency period ran;
- (b) Failed to comply with the most basic standard of care which requires the filing of papers with the patent and trademark office on a timely basis;

(c) Failed to timely file the Nonprovisional Application relating to Patent Application 62258322 despite express instructions from Plaintiffs to fully file and prosecute their patent, and with sufficient time to prepare and file the application; and

(d) Failed to inform Plaintiffs that they had committed malpractice and that the Plaintiffs should immediately consult with another attorney to properly protect their patent rights as well as their rights to seek redress for the Chadeayne Defendants' breach of their duties.

15. The Chadeayne Defendants have admitted that they failed to file the Nonprovisional Patent Application on time, and that they have instituted procedures to properly docket due dates for filing of legal documents in the United States Patent and Trademark Office.

16. A patent gives the owner the right to exclude others from using a patented invention and to receive licensing fees and royalties from others who wish to use the invention. In the absence of a patent covering an invention, others are free to use and practice the invention without paying licensing fees or royalties.

17. If the Nonprovisional Application relating to Patent Application N62258322 had been timely filed by Defendants Chadeayne, LLC, and Andrew Chadeayne, valuable patents on that invention would have issued, and Plaintiffs legal rights to the claims in provisional Patent Application 62258322 would have been protected.

18. But for the failure of Defendants Chadeayne, LLC, and Andrew Chadeayne, to timely file the Nonprovisional Patent Application relating to Patent Application N62258322, Plaintiffs would have obtained the right from the United States Patent and Trademark Office to exclude all others from practicing the invention and to have been paid licensing fees and royalties for the use of the product by others, as well as the valuable right to sell the patent.

19. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants Chadeayne, LLC, and Andrew Chadeayne's negligence as set forth above, Plaintiffs have sustained damages in excess of $25,000.00, in an amount to be proven at trial.

20. Defendants' conduct as set forth above showed a complete indifference to and conscious disregard for the Plaintiffs' rights thereby entitling Plaintiffs to punitive damages.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs Susan L. Butler and Patrick J. Butler pray judgment against Defendants Chadeayne, LLC, and Andrew Chadeayne for actual damages in excess of Twenty-Five Thousand Dollars ($25,000.00), punitive damages to punish and deter Defendants from like conduct in the future, pre-judgment and post-judgment interest, attorneys' fees, costs, and for such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper, the premises considered.

COUNT II BREACH OF CONTRACT

COME NOW Plaintiffs Susan L. Butler and Patrick J. Butler, and for Count II of their Petition directed against Defendants state as follows

21. Plaintiffs herewith adopt by reference each and every allegation set forth in Paragraphs 1 – 20 of this Petition, the same as if fully herein set forth.

22. Plaintiffs and Defendants entered into a legal services contract the terms of which employed said Defendants to handle the drafting and filing of the patent application described above. An implied and material term of the employment contract required said Defendants to perform the legal services and patent filing services for Plaintiffs in a timely, diligent, and professional manner. Plaintiffs performed the contract by providing Defendants with all documents and information necessary for Defendants to perform the legal services and patent filing services they were hired to perform and by paying Defendants for their legal services relating to the patent application described above.

23. Defendants breached their legal services contract with Plaintiffs by failing to exercise that degree of skill, learning and diligence normally used under the same or similar circumstances by members of the legal profession and paralegal profession in that they failed to timely file the appropriate legal papers with the United States Patent and Trademark Office relating to the patent application discussed above which resulted in Plaintiffs' intellectual property rights to their patent being lost forever.

24. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' breach of their legal services contract with Plaintiffs Susan Butler and Patrick Butler, Plaintiffs have sustained damages in excess of $25,000.00, in an amount to be proven at trial.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs Susan L. Butler and Patrick J. Butler pray judgment against Defendants Chadeayne, LLC, and Andrew Chadeayne for actual damages in excess of Twenty-Five Thousand Dollars ($25,000.00), pre-judgment and post-judgment interest, attorneys' fees, costs, and for such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper, the premises considered.

COUNT III LEGAL SERVICES PROVIDER NEGLIGENCE

COME NOW Plaintiffs Susan L. Butler and Patrick J. Butler and for Count III of their Petition directed against Defendants Pacific Patent Group, LLC, and Holli Templeton state as follows

25. Plaintiffs herewith adopt by reference each and every allegation contained in Paragraphs 1 – 24 of this Petition, the same as if fully herein set forth.

26. Defendant Holli Templeton was a paralegal employed by Defendant Pacific Patent Group, LLC, and was hired by Plaintiffs by and through Defendant Chadeayne, LLC, who worked on the Butlers' Patent Application 62258322, which is the subject of this suit. Ms.

Templeton is listed as a “Filer” on the Electronic Acknowledgement Receipt received from the United States Patent and Trademark Office.

27. As a paralegal working on the Butlers’ Patent Application 62258322, Ms. Templeton was responsible for keeping track of the dates that legal documents relating to Patent Application 62258322 were required to be filed in the United States Patent and Trademark Office in order to preserve the valuable property rights of the inventors, including the date that the Nonprovisional Application described above was required to be filed in the United States Patent and Trademark Office.

28. Defendant Holli Templeton was negligent and breached her duties to Plaintiffs to use that degree of skill and learning ordinarily used by paralegal service providers under the same or similar circumstances in that she failed to properly supervise and docket the date that the Nonprovisional Application was required to be filed in the United States Patent and Trademark Office.

29. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants Pacific Patent Group, LLC, and Holli Templeton’s negligence as set forth above, Plaintiffs have sustained damages in excess of $25,000.00, in an amount to be proven at trial.

30. Defendants’ conduct as set forth above showed a complete indifference to and conscious disregard for the Plaintiffs’ rights, thereby entitling Plaintiffs to punitive damages.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs Susan L. Butler and Patrick J. Butler pray judgment against Defendant Pacific Patent Group, LLC, and Holli Templeton for actual damages in excess of Twenty-Five Thousand Dollars ($25,000.00), punitive damages to punish and deter Defendants from like conduct in the future, pre-judgment and post-judgment interest, attorneys’ fees, costs, and for such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper, the premises considered.

RULE 14 SPECIAL PROCESS SERVERS

1. Any person appointed by the Court or the Circuit Clerk to serve process must have a license issued pursuant to this rule to serve process.
2. Licenses to serve process shall be issued by the Sheriff of the City of St. Louis if the applicant has met the following qualifications:
 - a. Is twenty-one years of age or older;
 - b. Has a high school diploma or an equivalent level of education;
 - c. Has insurance coverage for any errors or omissions occurring in the service of process;
 - d. Has not been convicted, pleaded guilty to or been found guilty of any felony, or of any misdemeanor involving moral turpitude; and,
 - e. Has passed a training course for the service of process which shall be administered by the Sheriff of the City of St. Louis.
3. Each applicant for a process server license under the provisions of this rule shall provide an affidavit setting forth such person's legal name, current address, any other occupations and current telephone numbers. Licensed process servers shall immediately notify the Sheriff of the City of St. Louis of any change in the above information, and the failure to do so shall constitute good cause for the revocation of such person's license.
4. The Sheriff of the City of St. Louis shall maintain a list of persons licensed to serve process pursuant to this rule, and shall make such list available to litigants upon request.
5. A photo identification card designed by the Sheriff of the City of St. Louis shall be issued in addition to the license. No other identification will be allowed. All licenses must be signed and approved by the Sheriff of the City of St. Louis and the Presiding Judge or his designee.
6. A license fee recommended by the Sheriff and approved by the Court En Banc shall be charged to cover the costs of compiling and maintaining the list of process servers and for the training of such process servers. The license fees shall be made payable to the Sheriff of the City of St. Louis.

7. A license for service of process issued under this rule may be revoked by the Sheriff with the approval of the Presiding Judge or his designee, for any of the following reasons:

- a. Misrepresentation of duty or authority;
- b. Conviction, guilty plea or finding of guilty of any state or federal felony, or a misdemeanor involving moral turpitude;
- c. Improper use of the license;
- d. Making a false return; or
- e. Any other good cause.

Provided, no service of process made by an appointed process server with a revoked license shall be void if the Court or Circuit Clerk made the appointment in good faith without knowledge of the license revocation.

8. Any person authorized to serve process may carry a concealed firearm as allowed by Section 506.145, RSMo, only while actually engaged in the service of process and only if the person has passed a firearms qualification test approved by a law enforcement agency; provided, however, that any licensed special process server may file a written waiver of the right to carry a concealed firearm and thereby avoid the requirements of firearm training and testing. Any violation of this section shall be considered beyond the scope of the privilege to carry a concealed weapon that is granted by the appointment, and shall constitute good cause for the revocation of the license.
9. Applications for the appointment of a special process server shall be made on forms available in the offices of the Sheriff and Circuit Clerk. Orders Appointing special process servers may list more than one licensed server as alternatives.
10. The licenses granted pursuant to this rule shall be good for two years. Each person granted a license shall be required to reapply at the expiration of the license and shall be required to provide all the information required in the initial application, including a current police record check.
